UNIVERSITY AUTONOMY

Higher Education Law of Montenegro

The Autonomy of Institutions Article 4

Each Higher Education Institution shall be autonomous in performing its tasks, in accordance with the Law.

Freedom of the Institution Article 17

Rights of the Institution Article 18

Academic Freedoms and Protection Article 20

Freedom of Research Article 21

Currently, preparations for amendments to the Higher Education Law – largely focused on university autonomy.

UNIVERSITY AUTONOMY

Article 2 of the Statute – the University of Montenegro is autonomous in performing its activity, in accordance with the Law.

Autonomy of the University implies the right to: define study programs, independently develop and implement study programs, determine rules of studying, regulate internal organization, select the management and governing organs, in accordance with the Law, elect academic and other staff, in accordance with the Law, establish cooperation with domestic and foreign institutions, perform and publicly present scientific results, in accordance with special Law and acts of the University, issue public documents, manage financial funds, exploit assets, assign honorary titles, other rights arising from good academic habits, in accordance with the Law and the Statute.

FUNDING

Mutual rights and obligations between the public institution and the Government for the implementation of study programs of the I and II cycle of studies are regulated by the financing agreement.

In May 2019, a Financing Agreement was signed between the Government of Montenegro and the University of Montenegro, for a period of three years. New, so-called contractual funding model, will for the first time give a clear insight into the relationship of input and output parameters, as well as the performance of the university, all in order to improve the quality of work at the University.
